SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT - YEAR B 6 December 2020

A world weary of suffering

"Here is your God!" These words of the first reading, attributed to a prophet called the second (or Deutero)-Isaiah, are words of hope for a disheartened people. The Israelites, although freed from slavery under the Egyptians, now find themselves exiles in what is called the "Babylonian captivity." The Babylonians had destroyed the temple in Jerusalem and exiled most of the Hebrews who were beginning to despair of ever returning to their homeland. The prophet is a scribe for Israel's God communicating words of comfort and hope.

A popular idea at the time was to attribute hardship and misfortune as punishment for sin. While the prophet does not directly challenge a connection between sin and suffering, he presents the people with a far more profound message of the assurance of God's victory over evil as well as the offer of divine mercy and forgiveness. Such a God is not only "coming with power" but also "like a shepherd feeding his flock, holding the lambs in his arms."

What is also clear in these verses is that God does not act alone nor impose the divine will without respect for human freedom. Rather, messengers will be sent, signs will be given, so that all people are invited to see that Israel's God is not simply the God of the Hebrews, but the God of all the earth and every people. The most powerful of God's messengers is John the Baptist, calling people to repent their sins and open their hearts to see in Jesus Christ the Messiah.

We may almost call 2020 our own 'Year of Captivity' in wake of the physical, mental, economic and spiritual challenges through such confronting experiences as bushfires and the coronavirus. There is always the temptation to despair forgetting that, despite human ineptitude, stupidity and sinfulness, creation is still God's world and we are still God's people. Our task is not to "give in" but to "act out" a new way of living focusing on the infinite mercy of God, the dignity of every human person, and the sacredness of the earth.

If bushfires and the pandemic have anything to teach us, it is surely that our human plans are often confronted by new and unexpected life challenges. Pope Francis' powerful encyclical Laudato Si' [On Care for Our Common Home] reiterates this understanding that "everything is interconnected." We need to take very seriously human responsibility for global warming and environmental destruction—and to change our ways accordingly. And we also need to place our faith and trust in God.

Advent is a time of both prophecy and promise. The prophet—whether Deutero-Isaiah or John the Baptist—calls us to repent and change our ways. The promise—"Here is your God!"—calms our fears and answers our deepest hopes for a world wearied of suffering.

Adore

2020 Daily Advent & Christmas Reflections

Adore is a beautifully presented resource containing short daily reflections from the beginning of Advent through to the Baptism of the Lord.

It provides a wonderful opportunity to take a quiet
step out of our daily lives and refocus our attention on the Lord in adoration of what he has done for us through his Son. Only a few copies left. $4.00 from the Church or Parish Office.

ADVENT WREATH

The season of Advent invites us to renew our lives in preparation for the coming of Jesus. The people who heard the message of John the Baptist repented for their sins and were baptized as a sign of God's forgiveness. In Baptism, our sins are forgiven, and we receive the gift of the Holy Spirit, who helps us in our life of discipleship. Led by the Holy Spirit, we use this Advent season to renew our lives so that we, like John the Baptist, might prepare the way for Jesus.

Response to Advent Prayer: Come, Lord Jesus.

2020 VINNIES CHRISTMAS APPEAL

We're sure for many people this Christmas will be like no other, and for the Mary MacKillop Conference of St. Vincent de Paul it will certainly not be the same.

Due to the Covid 19 restrictions imposed, Christmas Hampers will be a little different this year. Instead of gifts and monetary donations, St Vincent de Paul are accepting gifts of vouchers for their 2020 Christmas Appeal. For example - vouchers from Coles, IGA, Target, Woolworths, Big W, Kmart, etc. Vouchers can be left at the Parish Office or on the Collection Plate at Mass.

Thank you for your continued support.

TIME FOR A HOME

'I express my solidarity with migrants around the world and thank all those who help them: welcoming others means welcoming God in person!' (Pope Francis)

Today, there are still 290 people held against their will in Papua New Guinea and Nauru. Over 1000 women, men and children have been transferred to Australia for critical medical treatment and now live in 'transitory' visa limbo. Over 200 of those people are held in locked immigration detention centres and so-called 'alternative places of detention', such as the Mantra and Kangaroo Point hotel prisons. Men who were brought here for medical treatment have been confined to their hotel for 12 months, have not been treated for their medical conditions and are seriously depressed.

Everyone needs a safe place to call home.

The Asylum Seeker Resource Centre is sponsoring a campaign in early December to raise awareness of the plight of these people who came to Australia asking for our help. #TimeForAHome

Your prayer support would be appreciated.
