FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT - YEAR B 14 March 2021

CONGRATULATIONS...

Congratulations to Prodeacio Bognay who was Ordained to the Diaconate last Friday evening, in St Carthage's Cathedral, Lismore, by Bishop Gregory Homeming.

It was a wonderful evening and we wish Prodeacio well in his pastoral appointment to Port Macquarie. Please keep him in your prayers as he begins his service as an Ordained Deacon in the church.

FROM THE PASTOR...

Dear Friends,

Easter is almost upon us and sadly there seems that no further lessening of the Covid 19 restrictions will take place. We could sing if we all wore masks and returned to the 4 square metre rule. That would require you to book in again for all Masses and further limit the number of faithful who could attend the Easter Ceremonies. Hence we won't sing as a congregation but we are allowed to have a small choir sing at Mass and the Easter Ceremonies. All parts of the Mass and the Easter Ceremonies that require a sung response will be said. Unfortunately the world is not perfect but thankfully our government has in the main protected us from a serious outbreak of Covid 19. The restrictions have been onerous at times. I am grateful that Australia has had limited suffering unlike other countries. As your Pastor I am committed to following all government instructions with regard to the Pandemic. A couple of years of inconvenience compared to the loss of a family member or members make the restrictions absolutely worthwhile.

Myself and the parish team will do our best to make the Easter Ceremonies as prayerful and solemn as we possibly can. We won't have the foot washing on Holy Thursday, the Adoration of the Cross on Good Friday will be limited to a bow or genuflection, we won't be able to physically touch or kiss the cross. On Palm Sunday we will remain in our seats for the blessing of Palms to limit movement and unnecessary contact in the Church. At the Easter Vigil our ceremony of light will be limited to a simple flame on the altar, once again to limit unnecessary movement in the Church. Servers and volunteers will come to your seat to light your baptism candle. To save mess and wax on the floors and seats we will give the little children a glow candle.

At the Easter Vigil this year we will receive Kirstie Hawkins into full Communion and fully initiate Brenda Nutt and Cameron Cook into our faith community and the universal Church. This Sunday they will undergo their second scrutiny and exorcism. They have been enrolled in the book of the elect and have professed their faith and received the Creed. They have been meeting weekly now for the last five months, please pray for them as they undertake this major step in their lives of faith. The Readings at Mass for the 4th and 5th Sundays of Lent will be taken from the Year A series of readings.

I am personally feeling very heartened by the number of people attending our weekend liturgies, not to mention the amazing and grace filled journey that three adults are going to call our faith theirs and join us at Easter in full Communion. No matter how grim things may seem it is an absolute joy to see three people joining our catholic faith. In the Archdiocese of Brisbane 135 people will become Catholics at Easter this year.

Across the world from the tiniest of parishes to vast cathedrals thousands of people will lay down their lives, and make a life long commitment to love, honour, serve and worship God at the Easter Vigil and Easter Sunday Masses.

Finally I heard a priest ask an older more experienced priest what he thought the most important pastoral initiative should be in any parish. He replied that it was to make the highest priority the welcoming of young families into our church, to make them feel needed wanted and loved. To assist them in becoming life long friends with God.

I pray for all of you as we move towards Easter, as Jesus says to us "be not afraid I am with you always"

Warmest regards

Anthony Lemon

READINGS FOR TODAY

FIRST READING: 1 SAM 16:1, 6-7, 10-13

A reading from the first book of Samuel

The Lord said to Samuel, 'Fill your horn with oil and go. I am sending you to Jesse of Bethlehem, for I have chosen myself a king among his sons.' When Samuel arrived, he caught sight of Eliab and thought, 'Surely the Lord's anointed one stands there before him,' but the Lord said to Samuel, 'Take no notice of his appearance or his height for I have rejected him; God does not see as man sees; man looks at appearances but the Lord looks at the heart.' Jesse presented his seven sons to Samuel, but Samuel said to Jesse, 'The Lord has not chosen these.' He then asked Jesse, 'Are these all the sons you have?' He answered, 'There is still one left, the youngest; he is out looking after the sheep.' Then Samuel said to Jesse, 'Send for him; we will not sit down to eat until he comes.' Jesse had him sent for, a boy of fresh complexion, with fine eyes and pleasant bearing. The Lord said, 'Come, anoint him, for this is the one.' At this, Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him where he stood with his brothers; and the spirit of the Lord seized on David and stayed with him from that day on.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: (Ps 22)

R: The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.

SECOND READING: EPH 5:8-14

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians

You were darkness once, but now you are light in the Lord; be like children of light, for the effects of the light are seen in complete goodness and right living and truth. Try to discover what the Lord wants of you, having nothing to do with the futile works of darkness but exposing them by contrast. The things which are done in secret are things that people are ashamed even to speak of; but anything exposed by the light will be illuminated and anything illuminated turns into light.

That is why it is said:

Wake up from your sleep,
rise from the dead,
and Christ will shine on you.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Glory to you, Word of God, Lord Jesus Christ!
I am the light of the world, says the Lord;
whoever follows me will have the light of life.
Glory to you, Word of God, Lord Jesus Christ!

PROFESSION OF FAITH

(APOSTLES' CREED)

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

HOLY, HOLY, HOLY

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.
