THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT - YEAR C

12 December 2021

CONGRATULATIONS ...

Congratulations to Fr. Prodencio Bognay who was Ordained to the Priesthood last Wednesday evening, in St Carthage's Cathedral, Lismore by Bishop Gregory Homeming.

What a wonderful celebration! Thirty parishioners (and one pig) travelled to Lismore to share in the wonderful celebration.

Dining at God's table

I was surprised recently to hear one of my students describe Jesus as a "wowsers" and Christianity as the world's foremost proponent of "wowsers". While I might be able to understand why a young person might express the latter sentiment (albeit unjustly), I find it difficult to see how anyone could accuse Jesus of being a "wowsers". In the popular imagination, the term "wowsers" has become synonymous with "bible-basher" and "God botherer". Religious devotees are often dismissed as wowsers because there is a popular perception that they are narrow-minded, forthright and censorious fanatics who disapprove of people partying and enjoying life. Something of the forthright "God botherer" is seen in the figure of John the Baptist in today's gospel warning that the coming of the Messiah will be like a "winnowing fan" on the "threshing floor" sorting the wheat from the chaff.

However, a counterpoint to these dire predictions of punishment in the "unquenchable flame" is found in the exhortation of Paul to the Philippians to "rejoice always" as the Lord's return is near. Joy and exaltation at the coming of the Messiah is a feature of the reading from Isaiah as well, who proclaimed with delight that "the Holy One of Israel" is in our midst.

This party atmosphere is one that pervades much of the story of Jesus. The Gospels tell of many occasions when Jesus celebrated with friends and acquaintances at weddings, bar mitzvahs, sabbaths, and other Jewish religious festivals.

There were certainly times when Jesus got angry and expressed moral outrage. But Jesus also enjoyed life immensely. Both Luke (7:24) and Matthew (11:19) record that Jesus' opponents accused him of being a "drunkard and a glutton". Elsewhere Jesus is rebuked by John's disciples for not insisting his disciples fast and do penance (Mk 2:18; Matt 9:14; Lk 5:33). Jesus' reply is telling. He equates his circle of disciples with guests at a wedding feast, and he goes on to suggest that through his ministry God is doing something "new", which requires his followers to rejoice and feast together.

Scholars argue that Jesus used the practice of table fellowship to signal the message that the world as he and his contemporaries knew it was at an end.

ADVENT WREATH

HAVE YOU THOUGHT? A TIME TO REJOICE!

This Sunday, the third Sunday of Advent is traditionally known as Gaudete Sunday. Gaudete is the Latin word for Rejoice! Advent was originally celebrated as a five week season and with the same fasting and penitential nature as the season of Lent. The third Sunday, Gaudete, was like a break for rejoicing in the midst of the fasting.

When Advent was reduced to four weeks and the nature of the season altered, Gaudete Sunday was retained. The colour of this Sunday is rose – a celebratory colour – and it is reflected in the vestments worn by the priest and in the colour of the third candle used in Advent wreaths. - Greg Sunter

A new era was dawning when God would reign upon earth and all the sinners, the poor, the marginalised and oppressed, and even the God botherers and bible bashers, would dine at God's table.

Jesus was no wowser. Even though he did call on people to live morally good lives, Jesus believed that no one was ultimately beyond redemption. This message is the source of the joy that lays at the heart of the Christian story. All are welcome to the feast.

CHRISTMAS APPEAL

Thanks to everyone who has supported this appeal so far! Your generosity will make a big difference to many who struggle to just get by.

Envelopes are available in the church for those who would still like to donate. They can be left at the Parish Office, Vinnies shop, or on a collection plate at Mass.

Donate online: <https://donate.vinnies.org.au/christmas-appeal> BUT when you reach the option asking for 'Comments or Conference Name' please write "Conference 43-427" SO YOUR GIFT STAYS IN THIS AREA.

Thank you very much for anything you are able to do.

Denise Banner, President
Mary MacKillop Conference

Wishing all Year 6 students, all the best as they leave their primary years behind and begin their high school life.

School Holidays

As another school year draws to a close, we wish all the staff and students of our three Parish Schools, a safe and happy holiday.

JOSEPHITE CALENDARS

2022 Josephite Calendars are on sale in the Church or at the Parish Office. $10.00 each.

As part of our commitment to Safeguarding in our Parish, we wish to advise everyone that there is NO ACCESS to the Sacristy before and after each Mass. This area is used by our clergy, acolytes and workers for Mass preparation and vesting and is not an appropriate place for others to enter at these times.

If you need to speak with Fr Peter, please let one of our hospitality team know and we'll arrange for you to catch up with Fr Peter after Mass if possible. Alternatively, an appointment may be made through the Parish Office by phoning 6672 1118 during office hours 9 am to 3 pm.

NEW GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT OF CATHOLIC SCHOOLS IN THE DIOCESE OF LISMORE

The Parish Finance Council wishes to inform parishioners of the new governance model and management of Catholic Schools in the Diocese of Lismore.

Bishop Gregory Homeming, after extensive consultation with the Council of Priests, Consultors and Trustee of the Diocese, the Catholic Schools Office as well as Civil and Canon lawyers, has established a company called Diocese of Lismore Catholic School Limited (DLCSL) to govern, administer and conduct Catholic Schools within the Diocese. The new company will also be responsible for all compliance and regulatory matters relating to education in the Diocese.

The Parish Finance Council has recently met with Kathy Lovell and Paul O'Brien from the Catholic Schools Office Transformation Team and Frank Hannigan, the Diocesan Solicitor, to receive information about the new governance model and to discuss any concerns. The establishment of the company does not change the nature of our schools.

All land and buildings used by our three schools, which have been funded by our Parish since establishment, will remain in the ownership of the Parish. A Deed of Licence will be signed by the Parish to enable the company to operate the schools.

We place great importance on maintaining and enhancing the Catholic Identity of our schools and the continuance of a strong and close relationship between our Parish and our schools. Whilst the structure of governance may change, the Mission of providing quality Catholic education will not.

The new framework will, we believe, offer the best way forward to enable our students and our staff to achieve the fullness of life.

A brochure explaining the new governance model is available for parishioners this weekend.

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT - YEAR C RESPONSORIAL PSALM (ISAIAH 12)

PROFESSION OF FAITH (APOSTLES' CREED)

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

HOLY, HOLY, HOLY

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.
