THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

YEAR C

9 January 2022

Inspired by the baptism of fire

Today marks a turning point in the liturgical year when we move out of the Christmas festive season into Ordinary Time. We mark that turning point with the gospel account of a major turning point in Jesus' life and in salvation history. It comes with the Baptism of Our Lord. For Jesus, his baptism marks the beginning of his public ministry.

For salvation history, his baptism heralds the coming of a new age, a new era. Gone now is the era of the Old Testament, when the people of Israel, guided by the Law and the prophets, waited with great hope and expectation for the coming of the Messiah and the liberation that he would bring. He has come now.

Jesus, however, wasn't the saviour they were expecting. For a while, John the Baptist looked like the one. But John had no doubts. He recognised Jesus as the Lamb of God, and proclaimed that "He (Jesus) will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire."

Jesus' baptism culminates with the appearance of the Holy Spirit, descending on Jesus "in bodily shape, like a dove" and a voice from heaven proclaiming: "You are my Son, the Beloved; my favour rests on you."

The references to the Holy Spirit remind us of two other significant moments in salvation history. Firstly, in the story of creation in Genesis 1, the Holy Spirit hovered over the earth when it was formless void and shrouded in darkness, and heaven and earth were then completed with all their vast array.

Secondly, in the story of Noah and the Flood (Genesis 6-9), it is a dove which brings the good news of the end of the Flood, a new start, a new creation. This then is to say that to be baptised with the Holy Spirit is to make a new start, to be renewed and re-created. It means a major turning point in our lives.

But John the Baptist proclaims that the baptism which Jesus brings is not only with the Holy Spirit but with fire. This reference to fire reminds us of the tongues of flame that descended on the apostles at Pentecost and that inspired them to go forth fearlessly and preach the gospel to the whole world.

So too does the fire of baptism inspire and urge us. Know too, however, that the fire will also divide us, exposing the division between those who accept and those who reject the offer of salvation and the demands of the Kingdom.

The gospel account of the baptism of Jesus reminds us of our own baptism when we were made into sons and daughters of God, filled with the Holy Spirit, and commissioned to spread the good news of Jesus' coming and the gift of God's grace in the world. Let us give thanks and take heed from Titus who urges us in today's first reading to give up everything that does not lead to God and have no ambition but to do good.

WHEN WAS THE LAST TIME YOU HAVE A GOOD LOOK AT THE "THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD" MURAL IN OUR CHURCH?

With the remodeling of the church after the Second Vatican Council, the beautiful mosaic was created behind the baptismal font, the work of two expert Czechoslovakian tradesmen. It contains about 30,000 pieces of imported coloured glass and took three months to carefully piece together | p 48 The Catholic Parish of Murwillumbah Past & Present Centenary 1989

ENTRANCE HYMN

A VOICE IN THE WILDERNESS

Chris Robinson

*A voice in the wilderness calls to prepare, for we are standing on the edge of changes.
Across the desert sand and the mountain high, the Lord is coming, make your way.*

I will hear what the Lord will say,
A voice of peace for all his people.
His voice is never far for those who know his glory dwelling in our land.

Faithfulness and mercy have met,
Peace and justice have embraced her.
Faithfulness shall spring from the earth
And justice looks down from the sky.

COMMUNION HYMN

COME TO THE WATER

Frank Andersen

*Come to the water! You who are thirsty!
Though you have nothing, I bid you come!
And be filled with the goodness I have to offer! Come! Listen! Live!*

Why spend your money on what cannot fill the emptiness deep in your heart?
Listen to my word and you will enjoy:
goodness and peace in your heart.

Just as the heavens are high above earth;
My ways and thoughts beyond you!
Call me your Father and know I am near!
I will be Father to you.

Just as the rain falls to water the earth;
just as a seed becomes bread,
my word upon you can never return until my longing is filled!

REFLECTION HYMN

BAPTISMAL INVOCATION

James Jacka Coyle

Come Holy Spirit, over this water;
Breathe new life over those you have chosen.

Come Holy Spirit, over your people,
Breathe new life over those you have chosen.

RECESSIONAL HYMN

SPRINGS OF SALVATION

Frank Andersen

You will draw water joyfully from the
springs of salvation:
You will draw water joyfully from the
springs of salvation.

You are the God of my salvation;
I trust in you and have no fear.
You are the God of all my singing,
the one foundation of my life.

I will proclaim to all your people
the wonders you have done for me.
You are indeed a God of Goodness,
You draw me gently to your heart.

Let all who live upon God's mountain sing out in gladness and in joy.
The Lord of all is living with you,
The Holy one who calls to you.

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD - YR C RESPONSORIAL PSALM (PS 103)

R: Oh, bless the Lord, my soul!

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, Alleluia!

John said: He who is mightier than I;
he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and with fire.

Alleluia!

MASS ATTENDANCE

What you need to know ...

Please DO NOT ATTEND MASS if you are unwell or have any cold or flu-like symptoms.

QR check in on arrival is still required for places of worship.

Masks are mandatory again inside for everyone over 12 years of age, subject to exemptions. Please continue to use the hand sanitiser provided.

Density limits have changed to "unlimited" from 15 December; however, as a precautionary measure, due to positive cases in our local community, we will not lift our current density limit of 2 square metres for a few more weeks yet.

Singing as a congregation is discouraged at the moment; please enjoy our choir and music.

Distribution of communion remains strictly BY HAND only.

All Masses will continue to be celebrated in the Sacred Heart Church. Country churches remain closed.

We will still maintain a covid-19 safety plan for the foreseeable future.

Thank you all for your care and consideration of each other. Queries or concerns, please contact Mary-Ann in the Parish Office.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

PROFESSION OF FAITH (APOSTLES' CREED)

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

HOLY, HOLY, HOLY

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.
